Forts host fifth annual Riverland Challenge

By VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

Down the river and through the woods they went, traveling by canoe, on foot and on bicycles, as 64 competitors of all ages took part in the Fifth Annual Riverland Adventure Challenge this past weekend.

"It's a reenactment of the fur brigades heading east to York Factory and Thunder Bay," Fort George and Buckingham House program coordinator Ross Stromberg told the competitors just prior to their departure on the first leg of the Challenge, a river voyage from the North Saskatchewan River campsite south of Elk Point to the landing below the forts. "Their canoes would have carried a significant weight, the winter's furs headed for market."

Another authentic note was the echoing boom from a black powder cannon that officially started the flotilla of canoes and kayaks on its way. Owner and builder Darrell May said his handmade cannon is not much like those used 200 years ago, but "It's something to make a noise and get you going."

Reaching the forts' landing, the boaters had a tough climb up the portage trail, a challenging run uphill and down through a maze of trails to the fort sites and a bicycle journey on rural roads lined with saskatoons in full bloom, with the father-and-son team of Nathan and Bernie Buzak first across the finish line, completing the course in one hour, 51 minutes.

For four hardy teams, the competition still wasn't over, as they took part in the crowd-pleasing Fur Trade Challenge. Sawing logs, blowing paper York boats up and down stream, balancing on logs for a tug-of-war and splashing through a water carrying relay was a great finish to the event, with Ryan and Tori Hornbacher and Tyler and Joanne Warawa eventually declared the winners.

Ready for the Challenge

Former marathon runner Bill Dunn and his wife Cathy were all set to take on their first-ever Riverland Challenge on Saturday morning. Bill added his own challenge to the mix, by performing a headstand in the canoe just as it left shore, a trademark move the Spruce Grove man said dated back to his marathon days.

Elk Point Show and Shine marks 25 years

Added attractions, garage sales will keep the whole family entertained on Saturday

By VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

The history of Elk Point's automotive show and shine dates back to September 1988, when the first-ever event of this kind for the community drew over 225 paid spectators to the A. G. Ross Arena to view a collection of 30 cars and trucks, ranging from a carefully restored 1933 Ford coupe to a flame-decked 1986 Dodge pickup.

That show's date and location came after the originally planned date in August coincided with a major downpour, and the organizers, the Elk Point Agricultural Society, decided not to take any chances with the rescheduled event.

The excellent response had Ag Society president Glenn

Harms and his committee immediately get to work on plans for an encore, "probably double the size of this one," according to the Sept. 24 Elk Point Review, for May of the following year. The rest is history.

In the years that followed, the Elk Point Auto Club took over the show's organization, with the lineup of vehicles and the attendance varying from rather small to enormous, but every one was much enjoyed by both exhibitors and fans.

Over time, with the show moved to Main Street, Elk Point's downtown merchants hopped on the bandwagon, holding sidewalk sales and other events in conjunction with the show and shine, and the chamber of commerce also choosing that date for their community-wide garage sale, which has more recently been coordinated by the town office.

This year's show is coming up on Saturday, with events planned throughout the day, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.. The chamber of commerce is bringing in three bounce castles for the younger set, and hosting a hula hoop contest as well as the Super Spouse and spark plug changing contests that proved so popular last year.

A number of street vendors, offering everything from mini doughnuts and ice cream to woodwork and quilts are also expected to set up shop for the day, and a good lineup of garage sales are also on the agenda.

Fur Factor Challenge

Black powder marksman and gunsmith Darrell May (right) points out the details on the black powder cannon he created, which was a definite attraction for both spectators such as Dennis Jasinsky and the canoeists preparing to set off down the North Saskatchewan River in Saturday's Fifth Annual Riverland Challenge.

A nearby spectator claps his hand to his ear as May's cannon fires to officially signal the start of the Fifth Annual Riverland Challenge.

E.D.C Highlights

A few weeks ago we took a break from our articles on the "13 Ways to Kill Your Community" to talk about the importance of having an Economic Development Officer (EDO) working for the town. As the decision has now been made, we would like to take the opportunity to bring everyone up to speed with what is going on, and what has been decided.

Last June we lost our part-time EDO when Bob Bezpalko took the job as Alberta Hub Manager. Recognizing the importance of having an EDO working for the town, the EDC recommended to Council that the position be filled immediately; unfortunately this decision was postponed several times. Then the EDC learned that we would also be losing our Recreational Coordinator. After learning this, we changed our recommendation, and asked Council to consider combining the two positions into one full-time position. Our reasoning was that by combining the two positions and their respective budgets it would allow the town to pay someone $36,000 a year which we felt would allow them to attract and retain someone with some qualifications. It would also provide this person with an operating budget of $24,000 to be used to promote our town (attract investment), as well as promote activities within our community.

For those of you who have been following the Council Highlights in the Elk Point Review you will recall that Council had decided several weeks ago to hire a Part-Time Recreation Coordinator. The decision to hire or not hire an EDO was once again on our Council's Agenda at their last meeting, and we have now learned that they have decided to hire a part-time EDO who will be under contract for a period of 6 months starting July 1st. Whoever they decide to hire will no doubt have some pretty big shoes to fill in a relatively short period of time, however we as the EDC look forward to working with this person.

Now that everyone is up to speed on what is happening with the EDO and Rec Director positions, we can move on to this week's topic, which is "Live in the Past". This week we will attempt to show you how important it is for everyone to look to the future, instead of dwelling in the past.

LIVE IN THE PAST

"The ultimate goal of destroying your community requires the right attitude. Most of the first chapters so far have been essentially about attitude. There is one attitude, however, that is absolutely essential in ensuring the death of your community. That attitude involves living in the past and constantly dwelling on past problems, mistakes, or failures. Of course, this also involves transmitting that attitude to other community organizations and members."

"In Griffiths' work on the Rural Development Initiative he's traveled the length and breadth of Alberta three times. Griffiths met with people of various backgrounds and experiences from nearly 300 communities and at those meetings, and virtually every subsequent meeting he met someone who purveys this attitude. They usually speak up first and are the angriest and they always try to suck the energy out of the room".

"These people would rather dwell on the past than direct the future and they do it in one of two ways, both equally as destructive. They either long for the glory days of old, seeing everything new as bad, or they dwell on about the things that went wrong yesterday, as though it were tomorrow they are talking about. They want everything to return to what it was yesterday, or they complain passionately and convincingly about past wrongs or injustices as if nothing can move forward until the past is rectified.

These people, it seems, are more comfortable dwelling on the past because the idea of living in the future scares them".

"Let me assure you, if killing your community is your goal, that negative attitude is essential. Hold on to it, live it, talk about it and pass it on".

Of course nobody in their right mind would want their town to fail, that's why it is so important that every member of our community understand that in order for us to move forward, we have to forget about the past. Albert Einstein once said, "Insanity is doing the same thing over and over again, and expecting different results". What Elk Point has done in the past has given us limited results; therefore, we must come up with a plan that will help us attract the investment we need.

Many of you may be wondering what you can do to make a difference, and the answer is quite simple; "Be the change you want to see". Instead of dwelling in the past, which is stuff that none of us can change, focus on the future, think outside of the box, try something new, ask questions, voice your opinion, get involved, start a new business, support our existing businesses, be part of the solution instead of adding to the problem. We look forward to hearing from you shortly.

Sincerely,
The Economic Development Committee

- Recently, the media have been reporting about taking some blood pressure medications at night rather than in the morning. Sometimes, if the medication is taken at night, the blood pressure may drop too low causing falls during a trip to the bathroom. This is something to be discussed with your doctor and pharmacist.
- Poison ivy: This skin problem is caused by brushing up against the plant which contains urushiol, an oily resin that causes painful itchy rashes of the exposed skin. Urushiol is found on the stem, leaves, and skin of the fruit of the plant. You can't catch poison ivy from another person. You have to touch the resin. Treatment includes washing the area with cold water. Our pharmacists can help.
- Shingles is a painful, blistering rash caused by the same virus that causes chickenpox. There is a vaccine, called Zostavax, available in our pharmacy, for those that have this virus in their system due to childhood exposure to chickenpox. Its rate of effectiveness is 55%...pretty good odds to prevent the pain and discomfort of shingles. Speak to our pharmacist today about getting vaccinated.
- Breastfeeding is good for the baby and the mother. Human breast milk contains over 300 ingredients. These include white blood cells, interferon, antibacterial and antiviral agents. Breast milk is good for the baby's developing immune system.

Taking medications while breastfeeding can be worrisome to new mothers. Our pharmacists will be happy to advise you about what's safe and what isn't.

Big milestones

This past weekend marked five years for one of our newest signature events, the Riverland Adventure Challenge, which has proved to be a big attraction that brings people from considerable distances to compete.

It was also the 25th year for the Jan Frisby Memorial slowpitch tournament, and though that event was smaller than some years, it was a big hit with those who took part.

This coming weekend is another milestone, as the Elk Point Auto Club hosts their 25th annual Show and Shine. This event has also brought big crowds to the community every year, and has inspired other groups, such as the chamber of commerce, to produce added attractions to enhance the day and bring even more visitors to town.

All three of these events would not be possible without volunteers... some of whom have been with the events right from the beginning. Thanks to all who help for all they do.

WAY BACK WHEN...

Financial crunch. federal election, Frisby memorial

HERE'S THE NEWS THAT MADE THE HEADLINES OF THE LAKELAND REVIEW AND THE ELK POINT REVIEW FOR THE WEEK OF MAY 29 IN...

1987

The F. G. Miller High School Class of '87 had its dreams, with the school's 1967 students' union president, Walter Ference, invited onstage to make a presentation to the 1987 counterpart, his daughter Wanda before Kathy Mistol and Cathy Buck took over the podium for their valedictory address. Town council dealt with a hefty agenda that included support for a municipal historical park, new bleachers for the ball diamond and final readings to a bylaw establishing a municipal recreation and cultural board.

1992

Elk Point Auto Club displayed 121 years of transportation, from Steve Andrishak's Penny-Farthing bicycle and 1903 Model A Ford to a sleek, chrome-decked Harley Davidson Electraglide at their show and shine. Elk Point Public Library Board was facing a crunch that meant raising at least $6,000 a year or cutting programs and services to a minimum, and were hoping to form a Friends of the Library group that would be able to get a license to run bingos.

1997

Federal election hopefuls John Williams, Les Parsons, Valerie Morrow, Hansa Thalesvar and Leon Benoit met the Lakeland riding voters at a forum hosted by the chamber of commerce. Nine Grade 12 students and 10 Grade 9 promees celebrated their academic achievement at Frog Lake School with the theme, "Past, Present, Future."

2002

Northern Lights Library System opened their new headquarters in the former Pan Canadian Energy building, with new director Carol Morgan busy getting ready for a June 1 grand opening. 'Tuu Times' made it seven times in the winners' spotlight at the Jan Frisby Memorial Slowpitch Tournament, with a win over Lac La Biche, with Squeeze Play and WHG winning the B and C events.

2007

Glenda Bristow from St. Paul Education's central office handed out hugs and personalized backpacks to Heinsburg Community School's Class of 2002 and urged them to fill their backpacks with life skills for the journey through life they are about to take. St. Paul's Xtreme won the A event at the Jan Frisby Memorial tournament, with two Elk Point teams, Balls Deep and Kaos, winning the B and C events, and Kaos donating their winnings to cancer research.

GUEST COLUMN

Mayday! Mayday! Mayday!

'Mayday' is the internationally recognized voice radio signal for ships and people in serious trouble at sea. At the time the codeword was established, French was still an accepted international language. 'Mayday' is a phonetic transcription using English spelling connections of the (ungrammatical) French phrase 'm'aidez', meaning 'Help me'.

Mayday calls are made by radio, such as a ship or aircraft's VHF radio. Although a Mayday call will be understood regardless of the radio frequency on which it is broadcast, first-line response organizations, such as the coastguard and air traffic control, monitor designated channels. When they receive a Mayday call the coastguard may launch lifeboats and helicopters to assist the ship that is in trouble. Other ships that are nearby may divert course to assist the vessel broadcasting the Mayday. The call is always given three times in a row ("Mayday Mayday Mayday") to prevent mistaking it for some similar-sounding phrase under noisy conditions, and to distinguish an actual Mayday call from a message about a Mayday call.

The Marconi Yearbook of Wireless Telegraphy and Telephony, 1918 states, "This signal (SOS) was adopted simply on account of its easy radiation and its unmistakable character. . . . It is well documented in personal accounts of Harold Bride, second Radio Officer, and in the logs of the SS Carpathia, that the Titanic first used 'CQD' to call for help. When Captain Smith gave the order to radio for help, first radio officer Jack Phillips sent 'CQD' six times followed by the Titanic call letters, 'MGY.' Later, at Brides suggestion, Phillips interspersed his calls with 'SOS.'"

You are probably asking, "Why on earth she is talking about mayday and SOS? There must be something about the end of May that caused her to think only of calling for help with the use of the code Mayday or SOS?" O.K., did

deanna

from the FCSS desk

you know that on May 29, 1953, Edmund Hillary and Tensing Norkay were the first to reach the summit of Everest? Now that is a challenge and worthy of congratulations. Is there anything else? Actually, there is something else. On the news recently, the aftermath of a year ago Slave Lake fire and what was learned that could be improved. One suggested improvement was communication. The residents are saying they could have been warned that evacuation warning to do so could have been received sooner than at the last minute. All the examples of Mayday and SOS are usually from an enclosed source such as a ship or aircraft - but what about a community? How does communication get out to everyone? Land line phone, Cell phone, e-mail or radio would only work if these sources are available and turned on. What that means is that "legal assigned sources such as RCMP" would have to go door to door and ask people to evacuate and tell them where they can evacuate to. Now you are probably asking: "Is that the way it is really done?"

Oh no! If I have to evacuate, what do I take with me? How long will I be gone? If I can come back, what will I come back to? All of these questions can be answered partly by your own evacuation procedure established by yourself for you and your family and by the evacuation procedure established by your own community. Now you may or may not say: "Oh no, I don't know anything about my own evacuation procedure or the one that is established in my community!"

Good news!!! The schools establish their own evacuation procedures; The health centre and the Town each establish their own procedures. Currently all these groups check and update that information regularly. The Elk Point F.C.S.S. office, under the Town of Elk Point, will be called by the Town office to set up a reception centre if there is a need to evacuate. The location for this centre depends on the situation and timing of emergency. Thus telephones numbers that you should have by your phone should include the Elk Point FCSS office (780-724-3800).

It is the end of May, my thoughts did go to Mayday and SOS, but my wish is that we never be called to evacuate. That would be nice, but it is naive to think it may never happen. So let's prepare - think about what we would do. That is the first step and the next step is DO IT!

YOUR VIEWS

REA history, facts to consider

To the Editor:

Re: Proposed sale of Elk Point REA

I have been thinking that as a onetime director of Elk Point Rural Electrification Association I became aware of certain information about the REA that is not secret but is not generally known, and that I should share it with the other members when they are contemplating their actions re: the upcoming vote to sell or not sell the physical assets of the REA.

First, for those who are unfamiliar with REAs and this one in particular, let me describe a bit of what it is and where. The Elk Point REA is an association of rural landowners that distributes power from the substation to its members' property within a specified area. It's more or less bounded by Range Roads 60 and 80, south to the North Saskatchewan River and north to the MD of Bonnyville and the Kehewin Reserve.

The direction of the operation is done by a seven-member board elected by the members at an annual meeting. Each board member serves for three years. From their number, the board elects a president and vice president. The secretary/treasurer is selected by the board and in Elk Point, is also a voting member. The president and secretary receive money for their service and board members are paid a fixed amount for each meeting attended. In addition, they receive a mileage payment for out of town meetings. The money to cover these and other office and operational costs comes from a levy on the membership (you can see it on your bill). Also on the bill you will see a payment for deposit reserve. That money goes for large repairs or rebuilds to the system. An O and M charge pays for day-to-day repairs as part of a province-wide pool. The distribution charge goes to operation of the REA, meter reading, inspections, etc.

People become members of a REA by signing a contract with them. To get a contract is as follows: For a new contract, all people whose name appears on the land title for the land where they want the tap (Definition: a tap is the wires, poles, transformer, meter and breaker from the REA line to the breaker). The new member pays for that tap which becomes the property of the REA and the new member becomes a part owner of the REA, thereby protecting his or her investment. If that land is sold the new owner is required to sign a new contract. Whoever's name is on the title for the land should be the member. The REA will recognize the person for whom they had a contract as the member. Now that we are contemplating a sale, any doubt in that department should be cleared up before the vote in early September. Even if you had a contract signed fairly recently, a recent court decision may have rendered it and you ineligible to vote on the sale.

Elk Point REA owns no service equipment and has no employees except the board, so they contract the maintenance, installations and operations to ATCO.

Some part of the legislated duties or responsibilities of a power distributor (REA) is to provide regulated rate power (the kind you're getting unless you have a contract with a retailer). Elk Point REA has contracted with Direct Energy to provide that service for us. So, in a nutshell, we own the system and ATCO does the operating and maintenance for us, and Direct Energy delivers electric power to each member on pro through the system at a pre-approved rate per KWH and all steps are regulated and approved by government appointees.

Let me be up front with you. My personal circumstances make it advantageous to me to sell the REA, thus I'm probably biased, and while that doesn't make the information wrong, the perspective may be. I therefore advise you to gather as much information as you can, check its veracity and make the decision that best fits your circumstances, and make sure that you can vote and collect if it comes to that without a lot of hassle.

Light refreshments will be served

We at St. Paul Education are genuinely interested in helping our schools and communities improve. We are committed to our two goals of improving academic achievement and building quality relationships, and we recognize that, as a member of the community, your voice is important.

You are invited to participate in a consultation process to share your views on education.
We want to understand what's important to you.

The purpose of this community consultation session:

- To facilitate two-way communication between schools and communities
- To identify and discuss community and school concerns and benefits related to education
- To work together to guide our students to be well-mannered, caring and active members of our communities

Community consultation is an important piece of St. Paul Education School Board's commitment to accountability and public engagement. The Board of Trustees rely on feedback from parents, staff, students, and the broader community to make informed decisions that support positive outcomes for students.

Canada Day Idol open for entries

By DEE PANKIW

Elk Point Canada Day Committee

As part of Elk Point's 2012 Canada Day celebration, the evening will again be filled with music.

Entries are now being accepted from young Canadians, aged 10 to 30 years old. They will be competing for a promotional package that includes recording time and copies of a demo CD, plus a percentage of the entry fees.

Each performance will be four minutes or less and will showcase the contestant's voice and stage presence. We are accepting the first 20 entrants (solos and duets) who pay the $20 entry fee.

There will be two categories, contestants grouped by age, but all will be eligible for the grand prize.

The show starts promptly at 8 p.m. on Sunday July 1 at the Elk Point Arts and Leisure Centre. Those of you who have been on the stage or in the audience in past years know what an energy and talent filled evening this will be, so you will want to get your seat early.

All entries must be received in advance of the show. Entry forms are available at local schools and at Panich Music in Bonnyville. Please contact Dee Pankiw at 780-724-2250 or dpankiw@telusplanet.net for details.

Spencer and Austin Young competed in the ribbon roping (above) at the Alberta High School Rodeo Association Junior Division finals, and came home sharing that championship, while Austin, shown tie-down roping, right, also won the High Point Rookie award.

Siblings share high school rodeo title

By Wendy Young

Review Contributor

Spencer and Austin Young competed at the Alberta High School Rodeo Association junior division finals in Nanton, Alberta on the May 11-13 weekend and came home the Provincial Ribbon Roping Champions together.

Austin also won the High Point Rookie buckle.

Other events they competed in were Barrel Racing, Breakaway Roping, Team Roping for Spencer, and Team Roping, Calf Roping and Goat Tying for Austin.

They will be going on to compete at Canadians in Virden, Manitoba in August.

Other competitors from northeast Alberta were Dawson Graham, Casey Olson, Colten and Jesse Fletcher, all from Wainwright as well as Mackenzie Loren, Lucas Brown, Quintin, Quade and Kianna Kozack from Fort Saskatchewan.

THANK YOU LAWRENCE, Olga

The family of Olga Lawrence could never put into words how grateful we are to Dr. Coetzee, Dr. Kritzing and Dr. deFreitas for the excellent care that you provided to our mother during her stay at the Bonnyville Health Centre. Thank you for everything you did for her and for us. We know you pulled out all the stops and gave it your all. To the nurses that lovingly cared for Mom while she was in acute and palliative care, your kindness, concern and compassion proved that there are indeed angels walking this earth. For everything that you've done, thank you very much. A thoughtful act or a kind word may pass in a moment, but the warmth and care behind it stay in the heart forever.

We wish to express our sincere and heartfelt thanks to all for the many kindnesses, expressions of sympathy, food brought to the house, flowers, donations and condolences at this difficult time. Everyone's kindness warmed our hearts and made us grateful for caring friends.

Thank you to Larissa and staff at Grace Gardens for organizing Mom's funeral beautifully. To Reverend Sam Donaldson for visiting with our family in our time of grief and for giving a service for Mom that celebrated her life.

We are so grateful and thankful for you and all you have done for us.

Author to visit in Seniors' Week

By DAPHNE SCHNURER
Librarian

Elk Point Municipal Library will be sponsoring author John Christensen "The 13th Rope" on June 8 from 1:00 - 4:00p.m. at Heritage Lodge. Everyone is welcome to come out and listen to John's amazing autobiography. John was born into a hard working Saskatchewan farm family, but despite his ordinary beginnings, John will never be an ordinary person. As a prairie farm boy of Métis lineage, John's life centered on hunting, fishing, trapping and roaming the countryside. His ancestors include Jean-Baptiste and Marie Anne Lagimodiere, who played significant roles in settling the Canadian west and Louis Riel, Métis leader of the 1885 North West Rebellion.

Seniors' Tea

Please mark your calendars for the June Seniors' Tea on Wednesday, June 13. Join us for the final tea before the summer break as we celebrate the Queen's Diamond Jubilee.

OBITUARY

GOBEIL, Lucien "Lu"

July 8, 1950 - May 24, 2012

It is with sad and heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Lucien Gobeil.

Left to cherish his memory are his loving wife, Cheryl; his children, Nicole (Earl Bear) & Marc (Shera-Lynn Jones); former daughter-in-law, Tara Pohl; his beloved grandsons, Kaymen Bear, Luke Bear & Aidan Gobeil; Cheryl's son, Mathew Balfour; his siblings, Cecile (Brian Stumborg), Florence (Vince Dwyer), Remi (Lillianne Comeau), Marguerite (Karl Trommeshauser), Valerie (Chris Harder) & Gerry (Rebecca Crosby); and his many nieces & nephews. Lu was predeceased by his parents, Maurice & Fernande.

Memories of Lu will certainly include the enjoyable times spent at Sun-Forged-Acres. On his cherished land Lu, with the help of Cheryl, designed and constructed a beautiful straw-bale home, surrounded it with orchards, gardens & flowers; added the sounds of chickens, cats & his faithful dog Sheba. It is here that we family and friends enjoyed his great generosity with numerous meals of fresh home-grown vegetables and free-range chickens. We listened as Lu entertained us with his adventures of encountering coyotes, deer, elk, moose and occasionally a bear or a cougar as he cut timber or simply walked his land appreciating nature - its silence and beauty.

Private inurnment has taken place. A celebration of Lu's life will be scheduled at a later date. Our family would like to extend a heartfelt thank-you to the neighbors, friends and staff at the Bonnyville and Elk Point hospitals, especially to Dr. Irma Kritzing, for their love and support over the past two years. If desired, donations may be made to Bonnyville Community Cancer Centre or Elk Point Palliative Care c/o Box 1780, St. Paul, AB T0A 3A0. To send condolences online, please visit www.gracegardensfuneralchapel.com.

Braves win two of three, Sox lose a tough one

BASSETT
Review Sports

Today's story is dedicated to the arrival of our newest member of our family, granddaughter Taylor Bree Bassett, born one week ago today on May 22 at 4.30 in the afternoon, weighing in at 7 lbs 2 oz, a baby sister for her big brother Bode.

Hitting the pavement this past weekend the Bonnyville Braves competitive midget team travelled to Vegreville, the home of the Big Egg. First on tap at noon was the Sherwood Park Athletics, a team the Braves had defeated quite easily the last time these two teams had met, but not as easily this past weekend. The Braves managed to hold on for an 11 to 9 win.

With just enough time for the team to grab a burger, the Braves were back on the diamond against the SJP Jays, a game that the boys maybe took a little too lightly considering their four and

O record at this point in time. Most of their games this year haven't been much of a challenge, but the SJP Jays were well coached and would give the Braves their very first real test, the Braves losing their first game of the season 10 to 9.

On Sunday the Braves sending their ace pitcher Jonathan Shapka from Lafond to the hill against the host team the Vegreville Bears, who responded using their ace, thus keeping the Braves off the score board for the first three innings. The Bears a good hitting team tested the Braves defense taking a five run lead. Cy Young Romanovich coming in on relief, keeping it close the Braves finally getting some runs, the final 7 to 6 for the Bears. A little too little too late, getting the runs across the plate. The Braves now with 4 wins and 2 losses for the season will be re-tired for the next month, when I'm sure the Braves, the Bears and the Jays along with some of the other top teams in the north will meet again!!!!

Down in the minor league this past week, the peeewe Sox losing a tough one to St. Paul, but a midget scout at the game was very impressed with the pitching staff, of Austin Ozzie Stafford, Peter Horse, Eric Stuparyk, Ethan Tremblay and the play of first baseman Caleb MacKinnon who snagged a couple of hot shots down the line.

And now for the K.A.Campbell quote of the week. "If you don't win, you're going to be fired. If you do win, you've only put off the day you're going to be fired." Last week's answer to - "The secret of managing is to keep the guys who hate you away from the guys who are undecided." - Casey Stengel.

Elder Abuse Awareness Day

June 15, 2012

"WALK FOR AWARENESS"

We encourage citizens to show your support for Seniors Rights by joining us at Sunnyside in St. Paul on June 15 at 10:00 am in your purple attire, where we will begin our walk.

Our path will be lined with purple ribbons, as purple is the color for family violence which includes Elder Abuse. We will finish at the St. Paul Seniors Centre where snacks and refreshments will be served, courtesy of the "Council on Aging".

You can also show your support by tying purple ribbons along your street or in your yard. Contact the County FCSS office at 780-645-1950 for more information.
